

MEDIA ADVISORY

Community Partnership for Children to open Flagler County office

- WHO: Community Partnership for Children, contracted provider for the State of Florida Department of Children and Families
- WHAT: Will celebrate through a ribbon cutting and open house the opening of its Flagler County office
- WHEN: 10 a.m. – ribbon cutting, Wednesday, Aug. 31
10: 15 to 11 a.m. – open house
- WHERE: 377 Palm Coast Parkway, Suites 2 & 3
Palm Coast, FL
- WHY: Community Partnership for Children cares for over 1,400 children each year who have been victims of abuse or neglect. We partner with providers and local citizens to restore families and connect children with loving homes. Since 2001, Community Partnership for Children has been the lead agency selected to serve Volusia, Flagler and Putnam Counties. Under the community-based care initiative, child protective services are transitioned to local providers and directed by the lead agency and community alliances of stakeholders. Through the efforts and involvement of our partners and the community, we are able to keep children safe and build strong families.

About Us Video links:

<http://youtu.be/TlRAj4Taf84>

<http://youtu.be/CRIFVGSLu1g>

<http://youtu.be/pOt8joroNNw>

FOR FURTHER INFORMATION:

Contact: Jo Lynn Deal, Community Partnership for Children, Jolynn.deal@cbcvf.org (386) 566-6935

MEDIA NOTES:

Palm Coast Mayor Jon Netts and Community Partnership for Children CEO Mark Jones will speak at the event and be available for interviews